Billing and payment services for heating & hot water

All you need to know

Introduction

Welcome to Glyn Street.

Your new home is served by a low carbon heating and potable water network which is generated in a communal plant room, powered by gas boilers. Your heat and potable water system is robust, reliable and controllable. You can control the heat level through your thermostat and heating controls in the same way as if you had an individual gas boiler in your property. Your hot water is provided on demand and you only pay for what you use.

Heat Network

HIU = Heat Interface Unit; this unit is installed in place of a gas boiler. It takes heat from heats up your own heating circuit & cold water feed to give you heating, hot water & potable water on demand.

HM = Heat Meter; this is the device in your property which measures how much heat & potable water you use in kWh. Insite can remotely read this meter for billing purposes.

What is a Heat Network?

Rather than have an individual gas boiler in every home, a heat network uses a centralised communal boiler to provide heat for a whole development or for several homes in a development.

The centralised boiler is usually located in a basement or external plant room. Your heat supplier Genesis Housing Association, manages the bulk energy supply to the plant room at your development. The communal boiler turns the energy into hot water and pumps it via an infrastructure of pipes around your development, passing through a heat exchanger or HIU (Hydraulic Interface Unit) at each property.

This heat exchanger or HIU (Hydraulic Interface Unit) brings the heating and hot water into your home.

The amount you pay for your heat and potable water will depend on the amount you use. You will also be charged a daily standing charge which is a fixed charge per day for your connection to the heat network. This daily standing charge is payable regardless of whether you consume any heat or potable water, as per a direct connection to an energy supplier.

Genesis Housing Association has appointed Insite as the metering and billing agent for Glyn Street. Genesis Housing Association provides Insite with remote actual readings from your heat and potable water meters every month. We then send monthly bills to your home for your actual heat and potable water consumption, using the remote readings, plus a daily standing charge which is a fixed charge per day for your connection to the heat/potable water network. If at any time Genesis Housing Association is unable to provide us with actual meter readings, Insite will send you a bill based on estimated reads.

You can find out more about how your heat and cooling tariffs and daily standing charges are calculated and when they are updated in the "Understanding Your Heat/Potable Water Charges" information guide.

What to do if you have a fault with your heating

Genesis Housing Association owns and operates your heat network. If you have a problem with your heat or potable water, please call 033 3000 3000. Insite can only help you with billing and payment issues.

These tips might help:

1. Check that your heating controls are set properly so that your controls are allowing heat into your home.
2. Refer to the Residents' handbook provided by Genesis Housing Association for further advice.
3. If your heat and potable water are still not working, please call 033 3000 3000.

What to do if you are moving out

If you are moving out of your home, you must ensure that you inform Insite, so that a final bill can be sent to you. You should check your final meter reading where possible and confirm the date that you are leaving the property. You will also be asked to provide a forwarding address so that your final bill can be sent to you.

Understanding your heat and potable water bill

Genesis Housing Association has instructed Insite to send you a monthly bill to charge you for your actual consumption of heat and potable water. Each month Genesis Housing Association provides Insite with remote readings from your heat meter which measure your consumption of heat and potable water. We will use those meter readings to calculate what you owe.

Your bill contains various information showing you what you have consumed, what the charges are and how you can make payments.

'Previous balance'

This shows you the balance brought forward from the previous month.

'Payments received with thanks'

This shows you the payments that Insite has received from you by the date that this new bill was issued. If you made a payment after this current bill was produced, it will not show as a payment received. It will however be shown on the next bill.

'Outstanding balance'

This shows you what is still owed from previous bills that you have not paid. As this amount still needs to be paid, it is added to the total owed – shown again as 'Outstanding Balance' at the bottom of the bill.

'New Charges'

'Total Now Due'

This is the total amount that you must pay. It includes any balance brought forward plus the total of your new charges for the month being billed.

'Heating Charges'

The back page of the bill shows you what you have consumed and how you will be charged. It shows you the period that is being billed (usually the first day of a month to the last day of a month) and your meter identification number.

Your smart meter read will usually be annotated with an 'A', to illustrate that it is an actual remote reading from your heat meter and is therefore an accurate record of what you have consumed.

The back page of the bill also shows you how many units of heat you have consumed and what the pence per kwh charge is, as set by Genesis Housing Association.

'Price Per Day Charge'

This states the daily standing charge as set by Genesis Housing Association, which is a fixed charge per day for your connection to the heat network.

'Total charges for Potable Water'

This is the total owed by you for the period billed, including VAT. This amount is shown on the front page as 'New Charges'.
